HUBERT VREELAND.

Democratic Candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture.

As the thousands of readers know, the Farmers Home Journal does not often express its preferences or advise its friends and patrons in contests for political offices, but there are times when we deem it to be in our special province to speak a plain word where the interests of the farming classes of Kentucky are specially concerned, and in this connection we desire to express our heartfelt indorsement of the candidacy of Mr. Hubert Vreeland, of Jefferson county, for the Democratic nomination for Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics. The State Primary will be held on May 9th in every county in Kentucky, and every Democrat will doubtless feel it his duty to go to the polls and there express his preference in the various contests for State offices. As for the other State offices, the Farmers Home Journal has no preferences to express, believing that it should have an eye only to that which is of direct concern to the farming classes. Mr. Vreeland was formerly a representative of the Farmers Home Journal, and for the past three years has been the assistant Commissioner of Agriculture, receiving the appointment from Commissioner I. B. Hall on account of his special fitness for the duties. His service as assistant has familiarized him with all the duties of the office, and in fact has given him a knowledge of the conduct of its affairs that a new man could not acquire until after a year or two of his term had expired. Mr. Vreeland had all his life been a steadfast Democrat, always supporting actively the regular nominees of his party. He has already received the indorsement of thousands of the most representative farmers in Kentucky, and it affords us a real pleasure to be able to recommend to our readers and friends such an eminently qualified and estimable candidate as Mr. Vreeland. We speak for him because we know him. We speak for him because we know the requirements of the office which he seeks.—Farmers' Home Journal.

At the State meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association held at Lexington a few days ago there was a revolt because of the admission of negro delegates on equality with the whites, and some delegates withdrew from the meeting. The controversy led to remarks on Berea College, the mixed school in Kentucky which is supported by Northern fanatics. A delegate from that portion of the State remarked that within ten days there had been expelled from Berea three white girls and two colored men, charged with courtship. He also stated that he had seen while and colored girls walk arm in arm down the streets of the town where this college is located.

The authorities did wrong in expelling these young people. Their courtship is the natural result of placing them on an equal footing and forcing the white girls down to this social level. They are not responsible. The misguided supporters of that hybrid school and the parents who send their children there are the ones who are to blame.

Children can be educated to almost anything, and there is something in human nature that makes it easier to learn that which tends to lower rather than that which will elevate the ideals and morals. A hard fight all the time is necessary to the higher education of the race. The experience at Berea is just what has always been predicted by opponents of mixed schools.

If our Congressmen can do anything toward rushing the letting of contracts for building the two dams below Louisville and the two locks above, the people of Big Sandy hope they will do so. The money has already been appropriated and the sooner work is started the sooner we will get the use of the slackwater. If the matter is delayed very much longer we will lose one season. If not two, that we might otherwise reasonably hope to have the benefit of.

The State Department has received a cablegram from Guatemala announcing that Secretary to the United States Legation, James G. Bailey, the Big Sandian, whose name was connected with that of W. Godfrey Hunter, Jr., in the killing of William Fitzgerald, is returning to the United States in company with former Minister Hunter. It is understood at the department that Bailey will not return to Guatemala, and that Minister Combs will practically have a free hand in the appointment of his successor and such reorganization of the Guatemalan diplomatic staff as he deems desirable.

A $1,000 Thrown Away.

W. W. Baker, of Plainview, Neb., writes "My wife had long trouble for over fifteen years. We tried a number of doctors and spent over a thousand dollars without any relief. She was very low and I lost all hope, when a friend suggested trying Foley's Honey and Tar, which I did; and thanks be to this great remedy, it saved her life. She is stronger and enjoys better health than she has known in ten years. We shall never be without Foley's Honey and Tar and would ask those afflicted to try it."

The Vanceburg Sun says: In an attempt to break up a "holiness" meeting at a place called Pine Hill, about three miles from Pine Hill, Carter county, two brothers named Stamper were seriously injured, one fatally, by a man named Prater, one of the leaders of the meeting. Prater told the Stampers that if they wanted to fight to just say so, and they would have it over before the meeting began. They answered that they were ready at any time. Prater caught up a bit of wood, and exclaimed: "Lord be with me," went after them. A nail in the stick penetrated like a hammer's forehead, and the doctors say he will die.

The good women of Kentucky are going to found a large industrial school at Hindman, Knott county. Two years ago Miss Catherine Pettit and Miss Stone were sent into the mountains by the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs for the purpose of investigating the condition of the mountaineers. Other good women came later, preaching the gospel to them. They established kindergartens, and mountaineers walked to miles with their children to put them in charge of the women. This work led to the establishment of the schools. Misses Pettit and Stone have canvassed Kentucky and the East and have obtained considerable money with which they will found the school. A farm has already been secured at Hindman.

The following item refers to an experience in Ashland, as given by one of our exchanges:

"Much uneasiness was felt yesterday by the people when a tremor was sounded under the high wind, and it was learned that a frame building in the center of a business block was in flames, threatening the entire business center. The members of the Fire Department, all Republicans, have sent in their resignations on account of the appointment of a negro as driver for Central Station, and the people feared the department would not respond, as the firemen had declared they would not 'ride behind a negro.' The negro was on hand, and had the harness on the horse, and the firemen, who had no idea of leaving the city without protection, secured a team from a livery stable, attached it to the apparatus and dashed away, amid shouts of approval from the bystanders, leaving the stable member holding the city team. Their appearance at the fire with hundreds of applause from the hundreds of people. The firemen are firm in their intention of resigning unless the objectionable member is removed, but any they will not leave the city unprotected."

Our weather reporter said that the thermometer Tuesday night and found that the mercury dropped to one below zero at midnight, having hovered near there for two hours. Soon afterward it began to climb and by daylight was up to twelve above.

The W. C. T. U. met in a business meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ruth Hatcher. After the business part of the program had been carried out, the guests were treated to a delicious supper of peach, cream and cake. Those who were about most certainly missed a treat, as Mrs. Hatcher proved a very efficient hostess.

At Mr. Sterling the jury in the case of Sarah King, accused of stealing $3,000 from J. C. Jones, acquitted her after being out only a few minutes. Miss King was in the employ of Mr. Johnson as a housekeeper. Johnson is the fellow who worked the "graveyard insurance" plan successfully for $10,000 on Morris Griffin, of this county.

W. J. Delaney, who claims to be a reformed and converted Catholic priest, delivered a series of lectures at the M. E. Church and Masonic Hall from Saturday night until Tuesday night. Large crowds went out to hear him. He makes some astounding statements about the inside workings of the priesthood and the monasteries of the Catholic Church. Opinions of those who heard him seem to be somewhat at variance. We did not learn what organization is directing his work.

Elwood Hutchinson and Miss Edna O'Neal were quietly married at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's brother, W. D. O'Neal, at this place. Rev. H. B. Hewitt performed the ceremony. They left on train, half an hour afterward, for Torchlight, where Mr. Hutchinson holds the position of store manager for the Torchlight Coal Company. This bride is a pretty and attractive young lady, of whom her husband may well be proud. The news is congratulations.

We are now in the throes of the worst weather of the winter. The thermometer registered a minimum of one degree below zero Tuesday night and 13 below Wednesday night. The snow is about ten inches deep. The wind blew at a terrific rate Wednesday, forming snow drifts against every obstruction. The Big Sandy river has been very high, but is now rapidly receding. The Ohio reached the danger line Tuesday night and some of the residents of the low lands have been moved out.

McKinnon-Burchett.

One of the prettiest winter weddings of the season occurred in the East End Sabbath evening. The contracting parties were Nathaniel McKinnon and Miss Virginia Burchett, two very popular young people. The ceremony which joined the happy lives was performed by Rev. N. M. Crue, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church. After the pastor had pronounced the benediction he requested the congregation to remain quietly for a few moments in their seats. Scarcely were the words spoken when the people, who were waiting to the vestibule, moved down the aisle and were married. The affair was very pretty and while it was a surprise to the congregation they appreciated the pastor's diplomacy. Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon will go to housekeeping in a very short time. The happy couple were showered with congratulations and they have the wishes of The Crisis and a host of friends for many years of wedded bliss.—East Liverpool (O.) Crisis.

Carter-Short.

The Ashland Independent says: "George Carter, of Columbus, O., and Miss Virginia Short, daughter of J. C. Short, near Louisa, were married Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Berry, 733 East Winchester avenue. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. J. T. French, pastor of the M. E. Church, South. The bride is a niece of Mrs. Berry, and she has been attending the Ashland College. She is quite a pretty girl, bright and intelligent, and a clever musician. The groom is the son of M. F. Carter, a prominent farmer and stock dealer of Lawrence county. They left yesterday for a visit in Lawrence county, and later will go to Columbus where they expect to make their future home."

Street Lights.

The City Council and the Triple State Gas Company have failed to reach an agreement as to street lights. Some of our citizens think they see in this an opportunity to make an investment that will soon prove a paying one, and have quietly set about to organize a company to supply this need in connection with another enterprise. Particulars will be given when the plans are perfected.

Will Raise $11,000.

Representatives of the coal mining companies of Kentucky met in Louisville last Monday and made arrangements by which it is hoped to raise $11,000 of Kentucky's $100,000 fund for the St. Louis Fair exhibit. In the list of those present we notice the names of Col. Jay H. Northrup and former Senator F. T. D. Wallace, of Louisa.

The time is near at hand when the question of whether or not we shall have an extension of the school term this year must be settled. All who are willing to contribute should make the fact known at once. The largest contributor to the fund is now said to be an individual not relative in the school. There are other contributors of the same kind. If all those who are directly interested will do all they can afford to, the extension is a certainty.

Who Is Your Insurance Man?

One is quite often asked who is his lawyer or his tailor or his doctor, but today we ask you a question of greater import—Who is your insurance man? Is he one who will beat both you and his company with equal fairness? Some agents, it is said, will, in their dealing, give either the assured or the insurer the hot end of the deal. And while the agent may be reliable in every respect, the company he represents may be not altogether what a prudent man, investing in something as vital as Life Assurance, desires it to be. Life insurance is no longer something which business men throw upon or speculate about as a scheme which may or may not be taken hold of. The best business men look upon it as the best of investments. You no longer have to quit breathing to win the game, properly taken, Life Assurance brings sure returns to you while you still live to enjoy them. But he sure of getting the right sort of Agent and the right sort of Company. The best combination we know of is the Mutual Life of New York and Frank Yates, of Louisa. Do you want a "fair dingle"? Frank will give it to you. Do you want to rest your lot with a company with millions of capital, directed and managed by a directory composed of the best financiers on earth? Then you can make no mistake when you say to the Mutual: "Assure me!"

These are not idle vapors nor empty homages. The Company has accomplishments of facts and figures which are continually convincing and conclusive. A short newspaper paragraph can not present more than a declaration of the value of assurance and the reliability of companies and agents, and we here epitomize and put into this nutshell of space the whole matter: See Yates and insure in the Mutual!

SMALLPOX LAW.

The following notice issued to the public by County Judge H. B. Rice, of Johnson county, is interesting to other counties also. Judge Vinson, of Lawrence, has given expression to practically the same sentiments:

Nearly every one seems to be of opinion that if he has smallpox, the county must furnish him a doctor and foot the bill. If he is quarantined (and every one is who has it), the county must furnish him fuel and food, and furnish some one to carry them to him, and wait on him until he recovers; then clean him up, clean and fumigate his house, furnish him with a suit of new clothes, and then pay him for his bed and such things as can not be disinfected and must be burned. These and all such conclusions are incorrect. Every one must meet his own bills and sustain his own losses in any other kind of misfortune. The only exception to this rule is in the case of indigent persons who are absolutely unable to do so.

Any person who has the smallpox and goes upon the streets or highways or elsewhere, so as to expose others to the disease, is subject to a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars.

Any one refusing to obey any of the rules and regulations of the Board of Health, shall be fined not less than ten dollars and not more than one hundred dollars.

Any person who has been exposed to smallpox and is liable to take the disease, and who will not seclude himself, is subject to be taken by any justice of the peace of the county and confined in some secluded place—at his own expense—until he has passed through the disease, or been released by the Board of Health.

Every person in the county—including children over three months old—who has not been successfully vaccinated, is required to be vaccinated immediately. I hope every one in the county will attend to this matter without delay. It will save you a mere trifle, and not only secure you and your family against the present epidemic, but is a safeguard for the balance of your lives. If you are absolutely unable to pay the small amount required to secure vaccination, your family physician will attend to it for you, and the county will foot the bill. So you are left without any excuse in this matter.

If every man, woman, and child in the county had been successfully vaccinated, there would not have been a case of smallpox in the county today, and the taxpayers would have been spared the enormous expenses of the present outbreak.

Now, my friends, having good and evil set before you, let me express the hope you will not the part of wisdom, carry out the plan here presented, and protect yourself and families from all sinister calamities in the future.

H. B. RICE, County Judge.

Rev. F. F. Shannon, A. M., editor of the Keystone Citizen, is sponsoring the month of February in Washington Co. holding meetings nightly and using the Strepococcus. He is working under the auspices of the Plummer Temperance Fund. Rev. W. W. Hunter, of Buffalo, Washington Co., has charge of the work. We are glad to say a kind word about Mr. Shannon. He is a young man of the ability, is a good speaker and carries with him some very fine views illustrating the evils of intemperance. Those who are fortunate enough to hear him will be greatly benefited.—Ex.

A Family Reunion.

Last Friday was the 77th birthday of Mrs. Dorcas Snyder, of Rappsburg, Ohio, who has been here for two months as the guest of her sons, T. J. and A. Snyder. Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Snyder arranged a celebration of the day by making it the occasion of a family reunion. They invited all the sons and daughters of Mrs. Snyder, together with their wives and husbands, to meet at their home, and nearly all of this numerous host came. On Thursday evening the following guests arrived:

D. S. Snyder and Mrs. J. S. O'Rourke, of Pleasant, W. Va.; R. F. Snyder and wife and John Hall and wife, of Rappsburg, Ohio; J. C. Snyder and wife, of Ironton, Ohio; together with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Snyder, of this place, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Snyder, sat down with their mother to a sumptuous feast on Friday, the 14th. It was a jolly crowd and a happy event. All the guests were here from Thursday evening until Saturday, and some of them remained until Monday. The weather was ideal and the time was most pleasantly passed. Several pictures were taken. One group contained four generations, John G. Burns and wife, with their little daughter, being included. The latter is the only great-grandchild of Mrs. Snyder.

This family has been remarkably fortunate as to health and long life. All of Mrs. Snyder's children—five sons and two daughters—are living. The oldest is 51 and the youngest 42. The wives and husbands of all these sons and daughters are living. The father has been dead 25 years, and this is the only death in the family except four grandchildren.

A Public Whipping.

The days of the whipping post were brought to the minds of our older citizens last Friday by an event that occurred here. As mentioned last week, Ben Prater and Wilt Holley, ages 11 and 15, sons of Ash and Jerry, of color, were arrested for stealing chickens. They were held over by the Police Court, and on Friday were brought before County Judge R. F. Vinson for trial. He proposed to the fathers of the dinky youngsters that if they would publicly administer a sound thrashing with keen switches, the cases would be dismissed. Wash and Jerry promptly accepted the proposition and at once led the boys out into the public square and proceeded to carry out their part of the program in such a vigorous manner that Marshal DeRossett interfered. It is safe to say the youngsters will not again be guilty of such a bungling job.

Married—O'Neal-O'Brine.

(Tune "Nora O'Neal.") I've been thinking my darling about you, Ever since the bright hour we were wed That my life would be dreary without you. And yours be the same when I'm dead. Now our life is all bright as the sunshine. But there's something I'm prompted to do. I'm bound to take out an insurance in favor, dear darling, of you. —CHORUS.

For we may not be always as happy As when we left darling O'Neil Cork. I'll insure for our own sweet protection In the Washington Life of New York. (Chorus) Ireland, sweet Ireland, my country All your claims I can never cancel. For 'twas there in O'Neil Cork that I met you When they called you sweet Nora O'Neal.

And it's well I remember the cottage Where you said you would ever be mine And gave the O'Neal to your parents With consent to be Mrs. O'Brine. —CHORUS.

But we may not be always as happy. As when we left darling O'Neil Cork. I'll insure for our own sweet protection In the Washington Life of New York. Now, Jennie, said Nora, dear Jennie, I'm proud to be always your wife. For I know 'twas your heart that was speaking When you talked of insuring your life. And it's God bless the day that I met you In the cottage at O'Neil Cork. And it's God bless our home in Columbia. And the Washington Life of New York. —CHORUS.

For we may not be always as happy As when we left darling O'Neil Cork. And I am glad you have got the Ten Thousand In the Washington Life of New York. —CHORUS.

If Jennie O'Brine can insure her life for Nora O'Neal for ten thousand dollars, why can't you do the same for your Nora O'Neal? Apply to R. A. MEER, Louisa, Ky.
